Welcoming Speech!

Honorable delegates, Respectable National Federation and Association's Presidents, Country representatives, coaches and Dear Capoeiristas!

On behalf of the Organizing Committee we are much honored to invite you to the "TATRA" International Capoeira Competition which promises to be one of the most memorable events of 2022. The event qualifies as an event of IV ranking.

The "TATRA" International Capoeira Competition will take place on November 12 (Saturday) from 09.00 am. The accreditation will take place on November 11 (Friday) between 16.00- 20.00.

Registration for participation is ongoing and will close on November 5, 2022.

The event will be organized by the Association Centro Cultural Arte e Luta Brasileira (Zakopane) in cooperation with the World Capoeira Federation.

Athletes who take 1st, 2nd and 3rd places (under -18 categories two 3rd places are available) will be awarded respectively with Gold, Silver and Bronze medals and diplomas. Winner nation (by quantity of gold medals) will receive a winner cup. All participants of the event will also receive a certificate of participation. Furthermore, regardless of the place taken, all athletes who participated in at least one match will collect world ranking points.

Preparations for the competition are ongoing and many volunteers are putting in a lot of effort to make this event a success.

This document will help you to find more information pertaining to the competition. As we move towards the event itself, more information will be provided to you by e-mail and through WhatsApp.

With our entire "Axe"- spirit, we will deliver a successful event, giving Capoeira the attention it deserves! Friendship will be strengthened and in unity Capoeira will stand strong!

Hope to see you in Zakopane and to discover this beautiful city together! Axe!

Sincerely Yours,
Edyta Magdalena

Chair Local Organizing Committee
President of the Association Centro Cultural Arte e Luta Brasileira

P.S. Changes might occur in the best interest of the event.

SAFETY, INSURANCE AND LIABILITY

The Organizing Committee assume absolutely no liability in the event of a purely sporting accident involving any participant. The Organizing Committee declines all responsibility in case of injury, in case of riot or any disaster which occurs during the Competition. Each participant of the Competition should be insured for the above- mentioned accidents and occurrences, by its own organization in its own country, with cover for all risks that may be incurred abroad during travel and participation.

For safety reasons, the use of a sports mouthguard is highly recommended.

ATTENTION to COACHES!!!

(extraction from the WCF competition rules no 19)

- Delegates, team leaders and coaches undertake the responsibility over the discipline of the athletes and team members involved in the competition, and they shall ensure that the athletes and team members participate in the competition in a timely manner.
- During the competition, coaches must sit in the chair provided and must not interfere with the smooth running of the matches by word or deed (coaches will be able to sit 2 meters away from tatami to support their athletes).
- Due to the behavior and rule violation, any delegate or another member of the team may be ejected from where the competition is held and the relevant competitor may receive the next warning regarding this.
- Coaches shall at all times during a competition, wear the official tracksuit of their National Federation and display their official identification. Female coaches may wear religiously headwear of a type approved by the WCF for referees and judges.

DRAW

The Draw to determine which players will be paired against which players in the group will be randomly generated by an automated computer program on 11 November in the evening. Competitors will be automatically allocated into category brackets according to their age, gender and weight.

AWARDING

At the end of each last round, an awards ceremony is held for the groups, the results of which are known.

The recipient of the medal must be present in person at the ceremony in order to receive their medal. If a competitor is absent from the awards ceremony for an unexcused reason, he/she loses the right to receive a medal.

It is permitted for competitors on the podium to bring national flag. Any demonstration of religious or political sign is prohibited. Any other advertising which is not sanctioned due to WCF Competition Rules is prohibited.

Participants who take 1st, 2nd and 3rd places in the competition (2 third places in the category under 18 years old) are awarded gold, silver and bronze medals and diplomas, respectively.

Winner Cup.

In addition to personal victories, according to the results of the competition, the winning team (national federation) is awarded a cup according to the number of gold medals.

COMPETITION RULES & REGULATIONS

"Tatra" International Capoeira Competition will be held in accordance with the WCF Competition Rules. The application of competition rules will be responsibility of WCF licensed Referees with international referee qualifications.
